

COALITION FOR EQUAL QUALITY EDUCATION
ORGANIZING MEETING
Wednesday, November 16, 6:30 PM
ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL

2011-2012 is shaping up as a year of renewed attacks on public education and access to educational opportunities for students from Roxbury Dorchester and Mattapan and immigrant communities, as the city and the bankers try to resolve the budget crisis that the banks created by cutting public education even more, and city council candidates promote return to racist "neighborhood schools" in the city council election, intensifying the attack on desegregation and parental choice and access to equal, quality educational opportunities. The concerted campaign attacking school transportation and student assignment process from the Mayor and the Boston Globe, and the fiasco created by the Boston School Department with unrealistic speed up routes that have produced unacceptable levels of school bus tardiness are turning up the heat for the fight to come.

Meanwhile, the Occupy Wall Street movement has spurred a new world wide fightback against these very attacks on poor and working people -- the 99%.

COME OUT TO THE MEETING AND PLAN THE CONTINUED FIGHTBACK!

Coalition for Equal Quality Education
equalqualityeducation@gmail.com www.equalqualityeducation.org